AGENCY PUBLICATIONS BOARD

1. Effective 12 August 1957 the Agency Publications Board was appointed to make recommendations concerning the review, coordination, control, improvement, and systematization of all Agency intelligence publications.

2. Members of this Board are: The Deputy Director (Intelligence), Chairman; representative of the Deputy Director (Plans); and representative of the Deputy Director (Support). Representatives of the Deputy Director (Coordination) and of the Inspector General will be invited to advise the Board and/or to attend Board meetings, as their interests may appear. The Deputy Director (Intelligence) may designate an officer of his component as assistant and to act as his alternate at meetings which he cannot attend.

3. The Board will (a) conduct such further review as it finds necessary of all Agency intelligence issuances that might be considered publications; (b) determine what intelligence issuances may properly be considered publications; and (c) make recommendations as to the necessary degree of and suitable methods for their coordination, control, improvement, and systematization.

4. The conclusions and recommendations of the Board to include its responsibilities as a permanent organization will be submitted to the Director for his consideration.
